New Dancers Always Welcome

Dance(tonians) Our June 10th dance featured the music of Ed Amrein, and an Argentine Tango dance lesson provided by Alyenendrov (Lennie) Tso-rokean of Phoenix Rising Sun studio. We had a Tango competition at 9 pm. Our Tango winners were Menyan Seibel and Calvin Pauley (1st), Tatyana Curtis & Dennis Dunn (2nd), and Dennis Doucet and Teresa Brooks (3rd). All of our winners received potted flowers. Congratulations to all.

Our next dance and annual meeting at Arbor will be July 8, 2017 at 7:30 pm. Tony Rimkus will provide the music. Brandon Perpich of Arthur Murray Dance Center West Chester will teach a Foxtrot lesson from 7:30 till 8:15 pm, and we'll have a Foxtrot competition for non-professionals at 9 pm.

Owners Kristen and Brandon Perpich head Arthur Murray Dance Center West Chester dedicated and friendly teaching staff up. From basic steps to custom choreography, for bride, groom, family, and wedding party, dancing makes that special day even more perfect. Consider taking your wedding dances to the next level with Arthur Murray.

Kristen and Brandon Perpich began dancing at Allegheny College, where they immediately fell in love with it. They started training and began teaching at separate Pittsburgh Arthur Murray Dance Centers. From then on, they've completely submerged themselves into ballroom dancing. They have constantly sought out training opportunities from world-renowned coaches and dancers. They have competed with students as well as together professionally in both American Smooth and American Rhythm. They've helped countless students reach their goals both socially and competitively in Pittsburgh, and now bring their passion and knowledge of dance to the West Chester area.
